

Chart 4: Development of affricate phonemes: The beginning of each solid bar represents the age at which at least 50% of the children produced the sound and ends when at least 80% of the children produced the sound. The arrow (→) indicates that 80% of the children were not yet producing the phoneme by 84 months of age.