

Interactive slides

Interacts with others in a polite manner

Interacts with others politely – Hearing Children

Interacts Politely: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

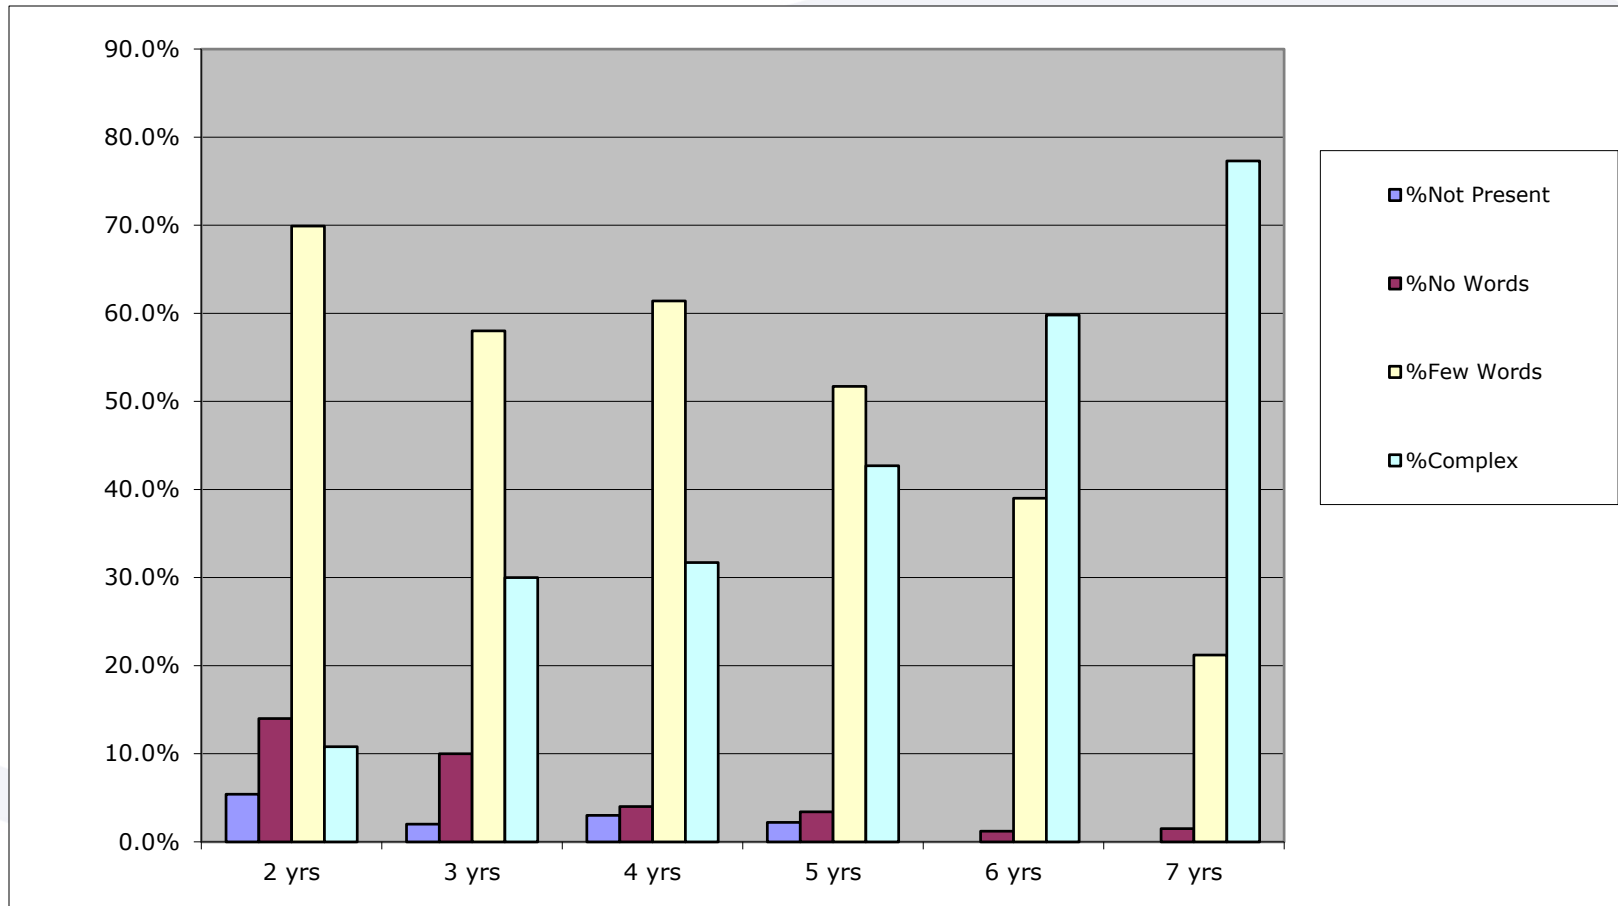

Uses appropriate social rules

Interacts with others politely – Hearing Children

Uses appropriate social rules: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

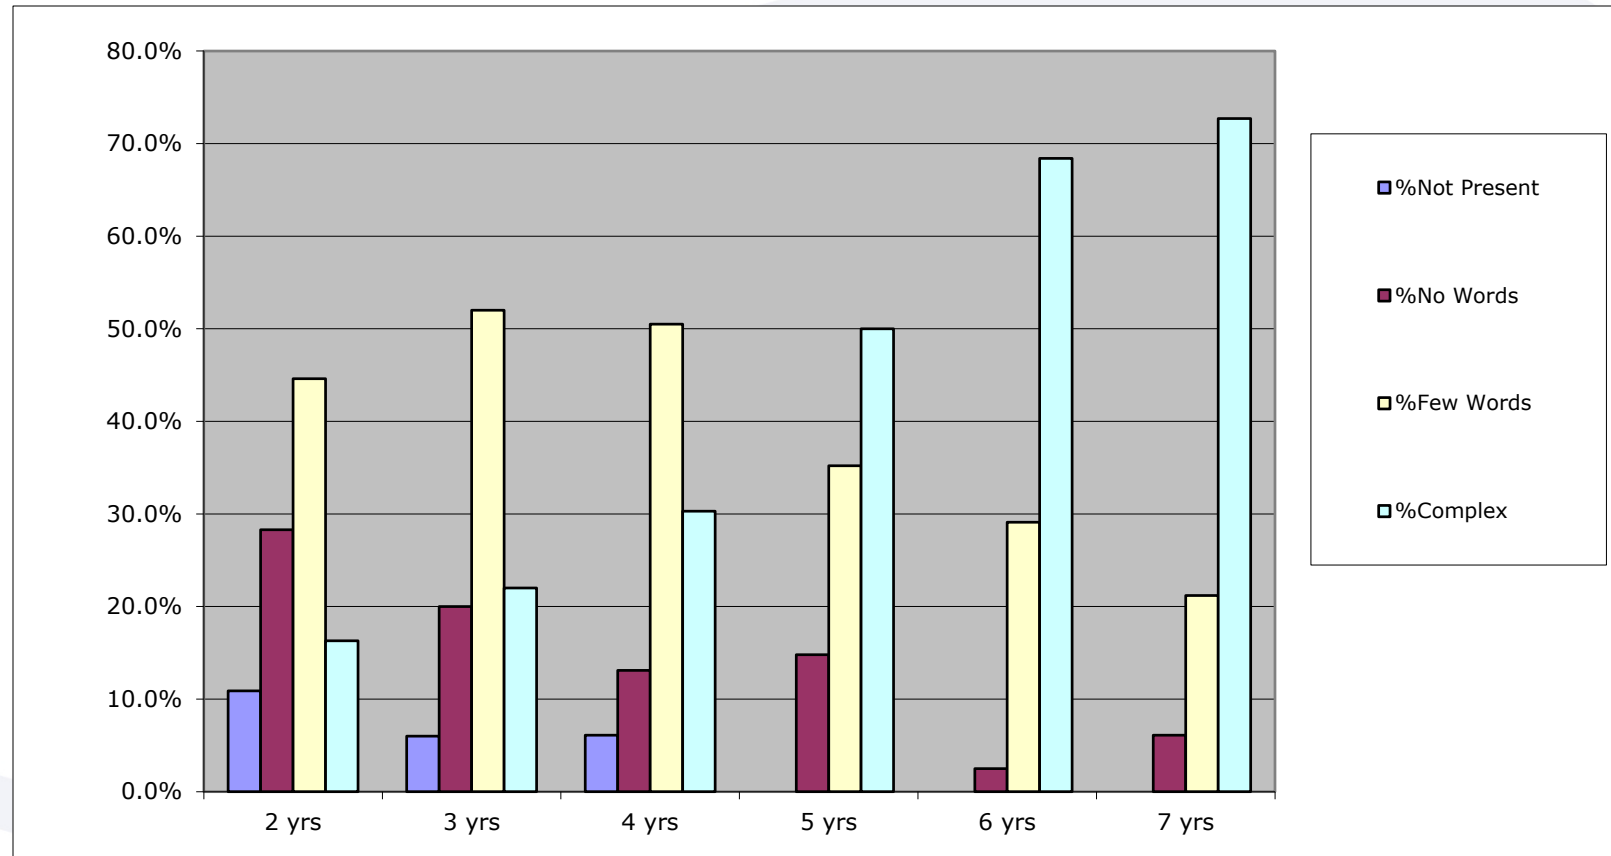

Attends to the speaker

Attends to the Speaker – Hearing Children

Attends to Speaker: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

Revises/repairs incomplete messages

Revises incomplete message – Hearing Children

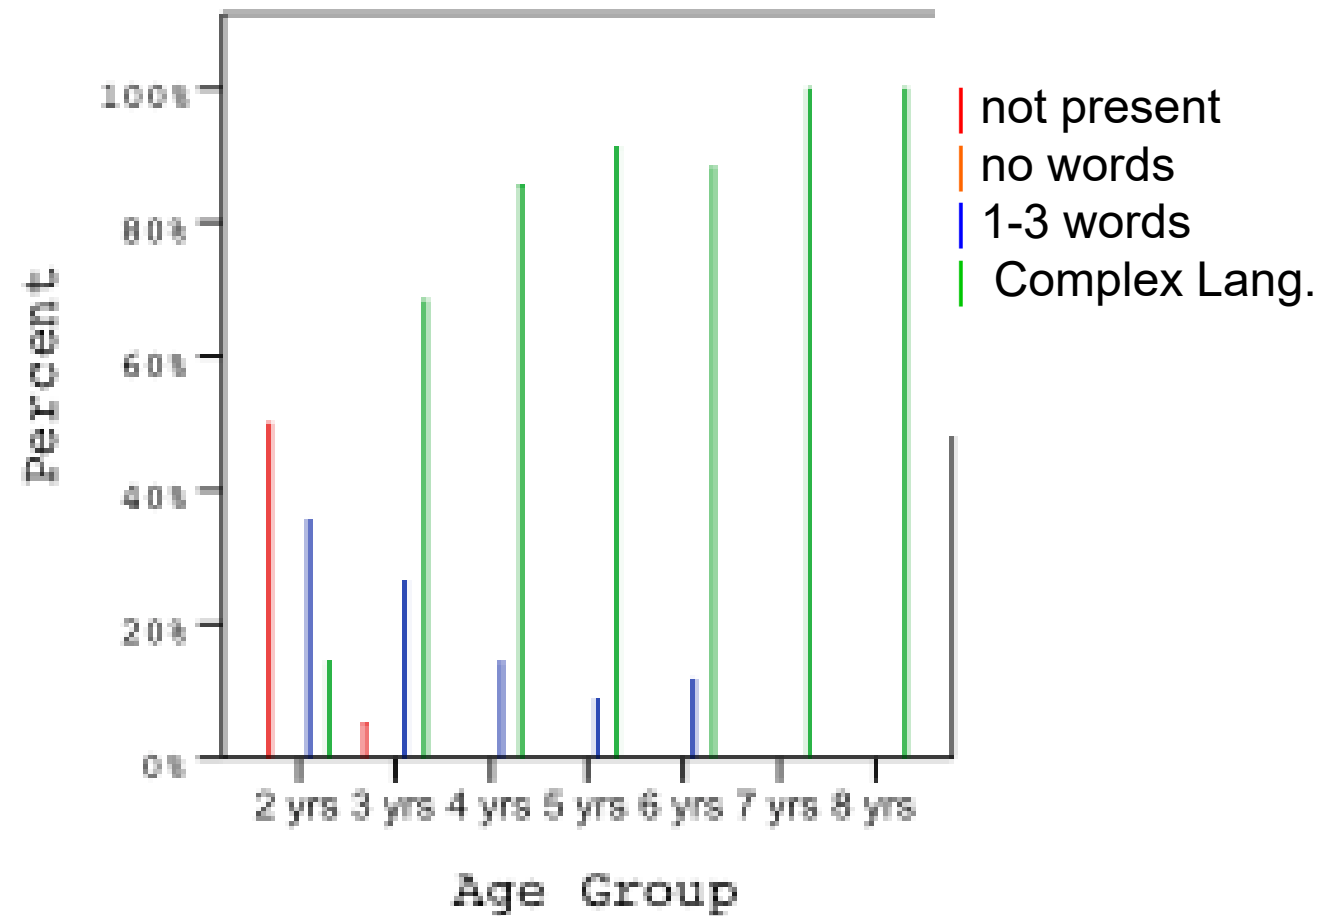

Revises incomplete message: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

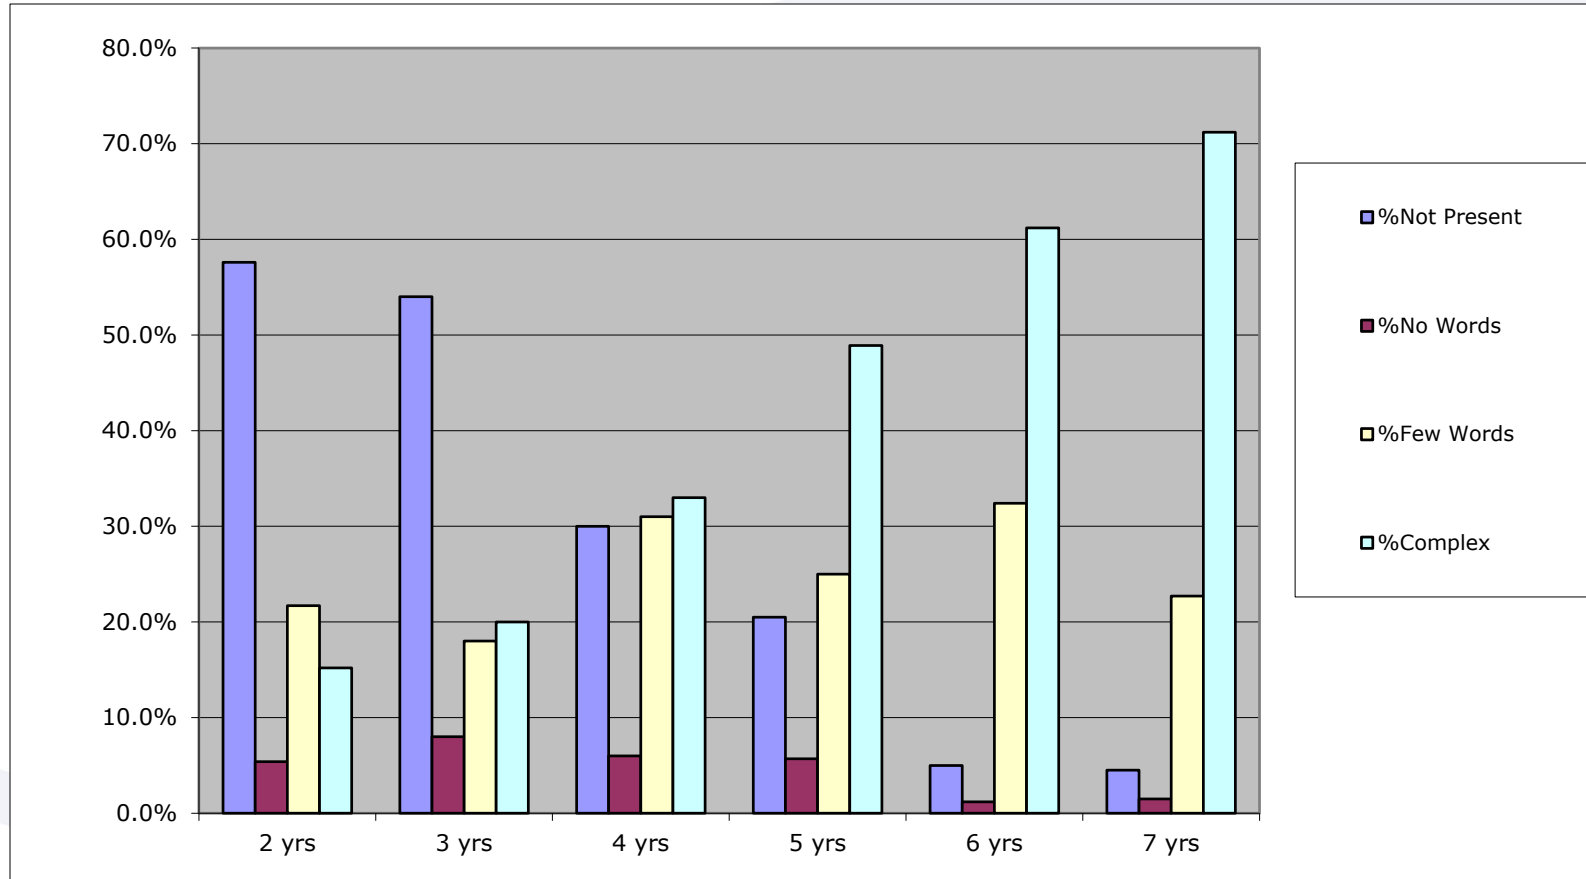

Initiates a topic of conversation

Initiates topics of conversation – Hearing Children

Initiates Topic of Conversation: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

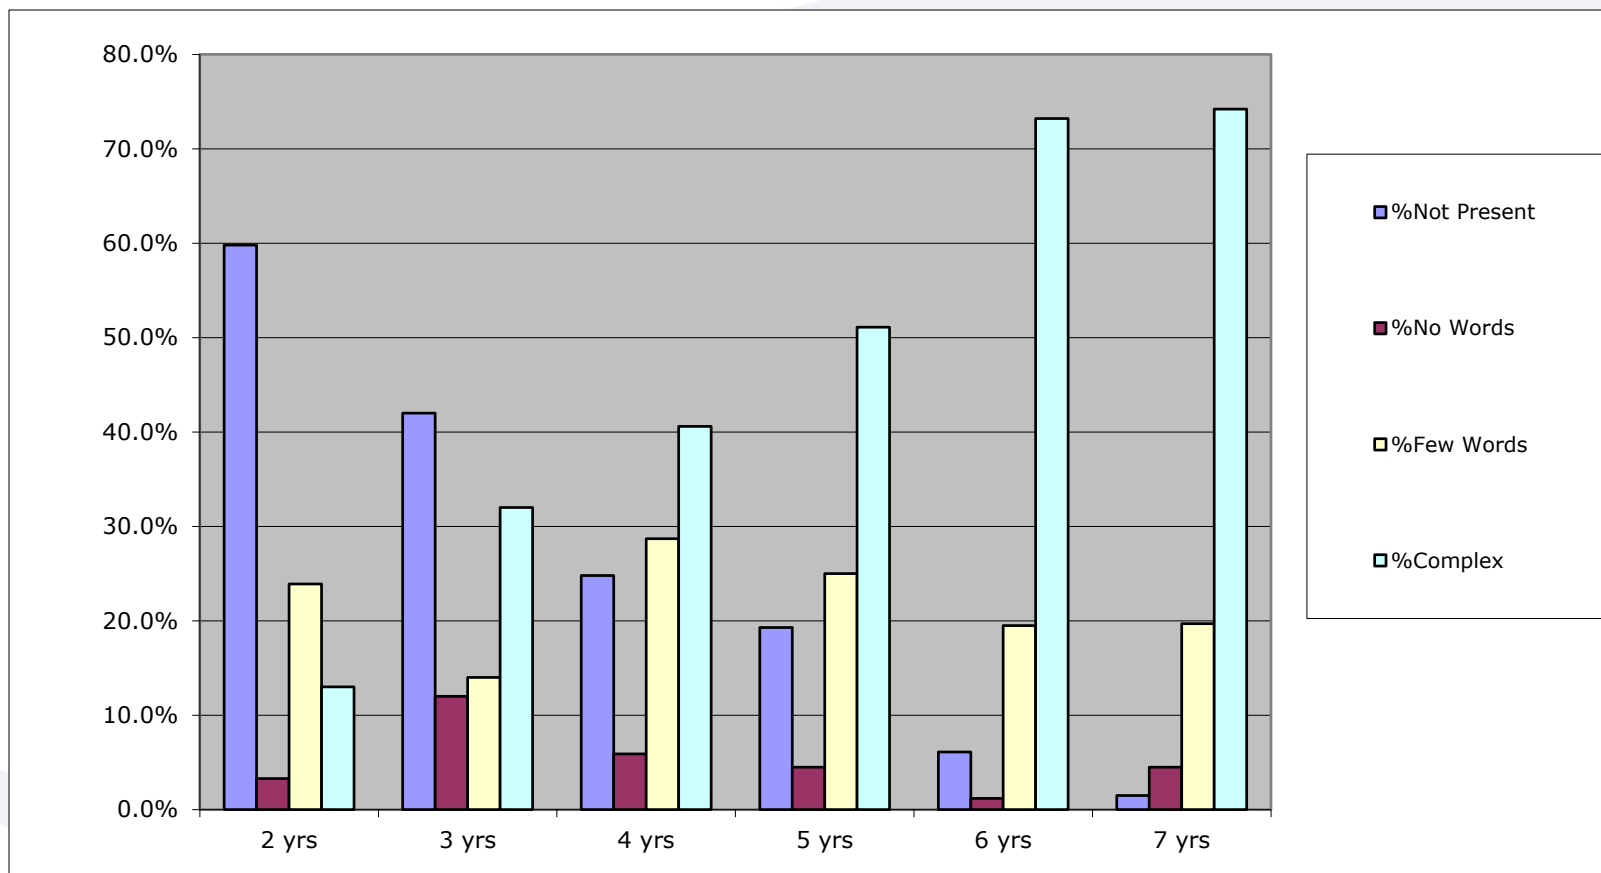

Maintains a conversation

Maintains a conversation – Hearing Children

Maintains a conversation: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

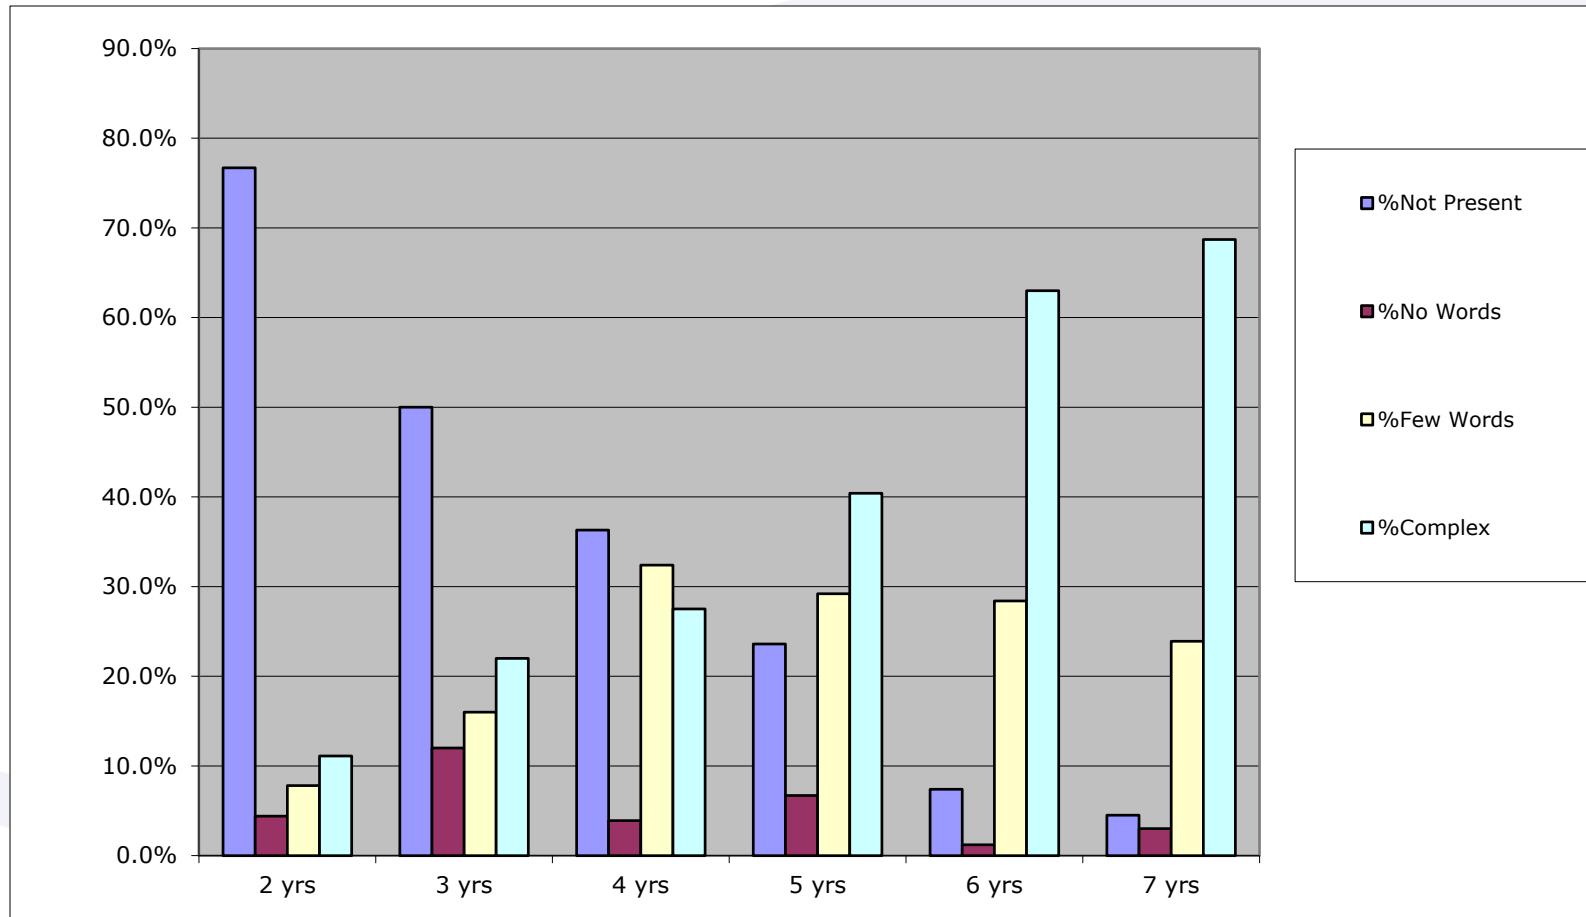

Ends a conversation

Ends a conversation – Hearing Children

Ends a conversation: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

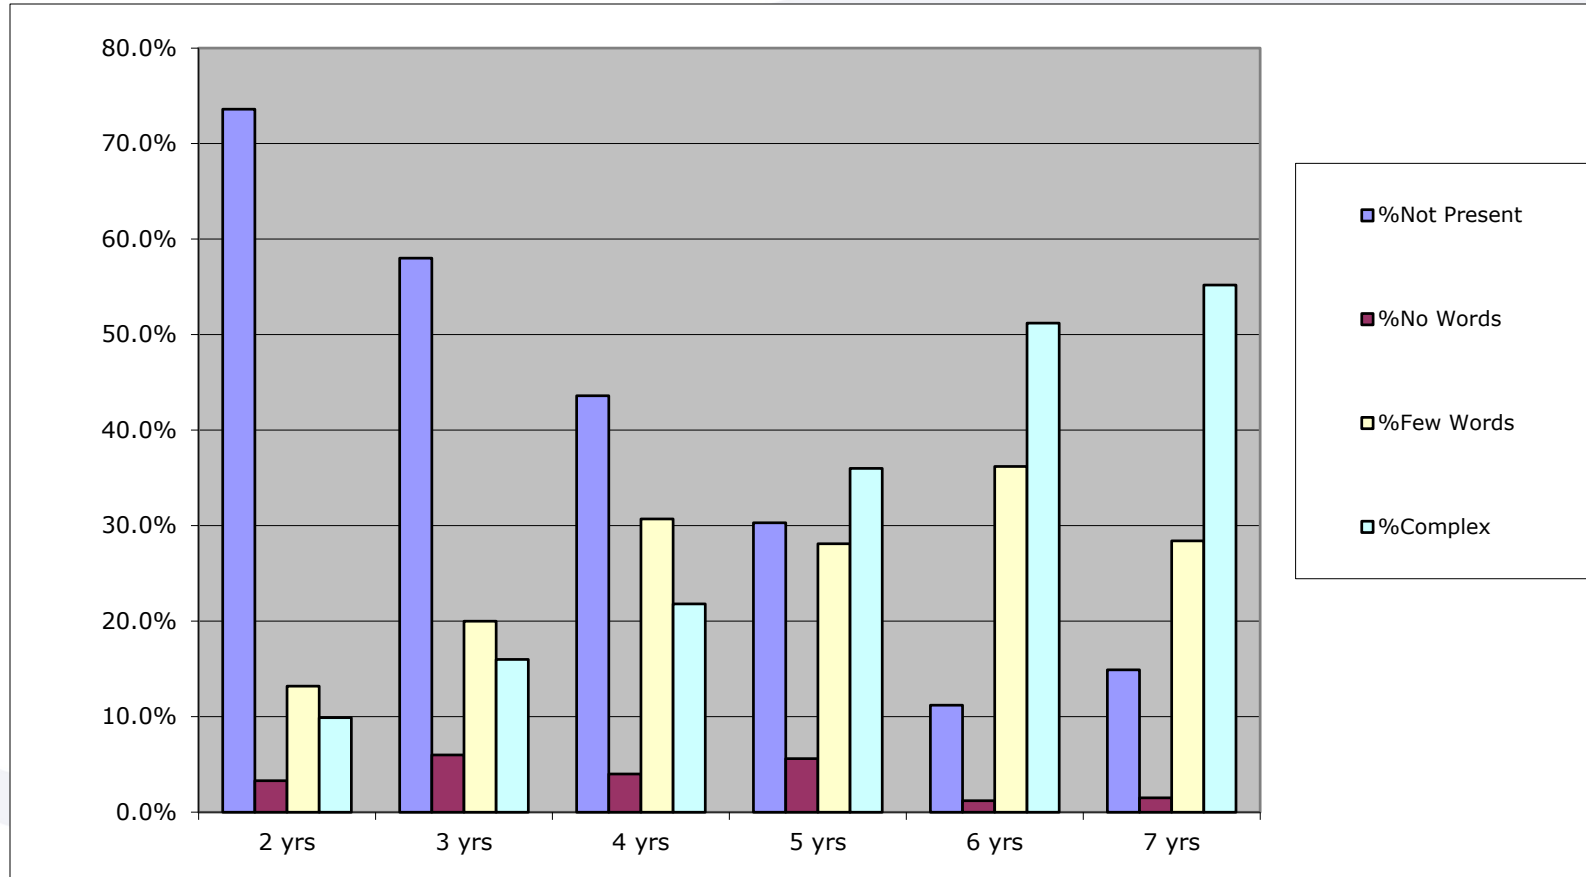

Interjects appropriately

Interjects conversations appropriately – Hearing Children

Interjects appropriately: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

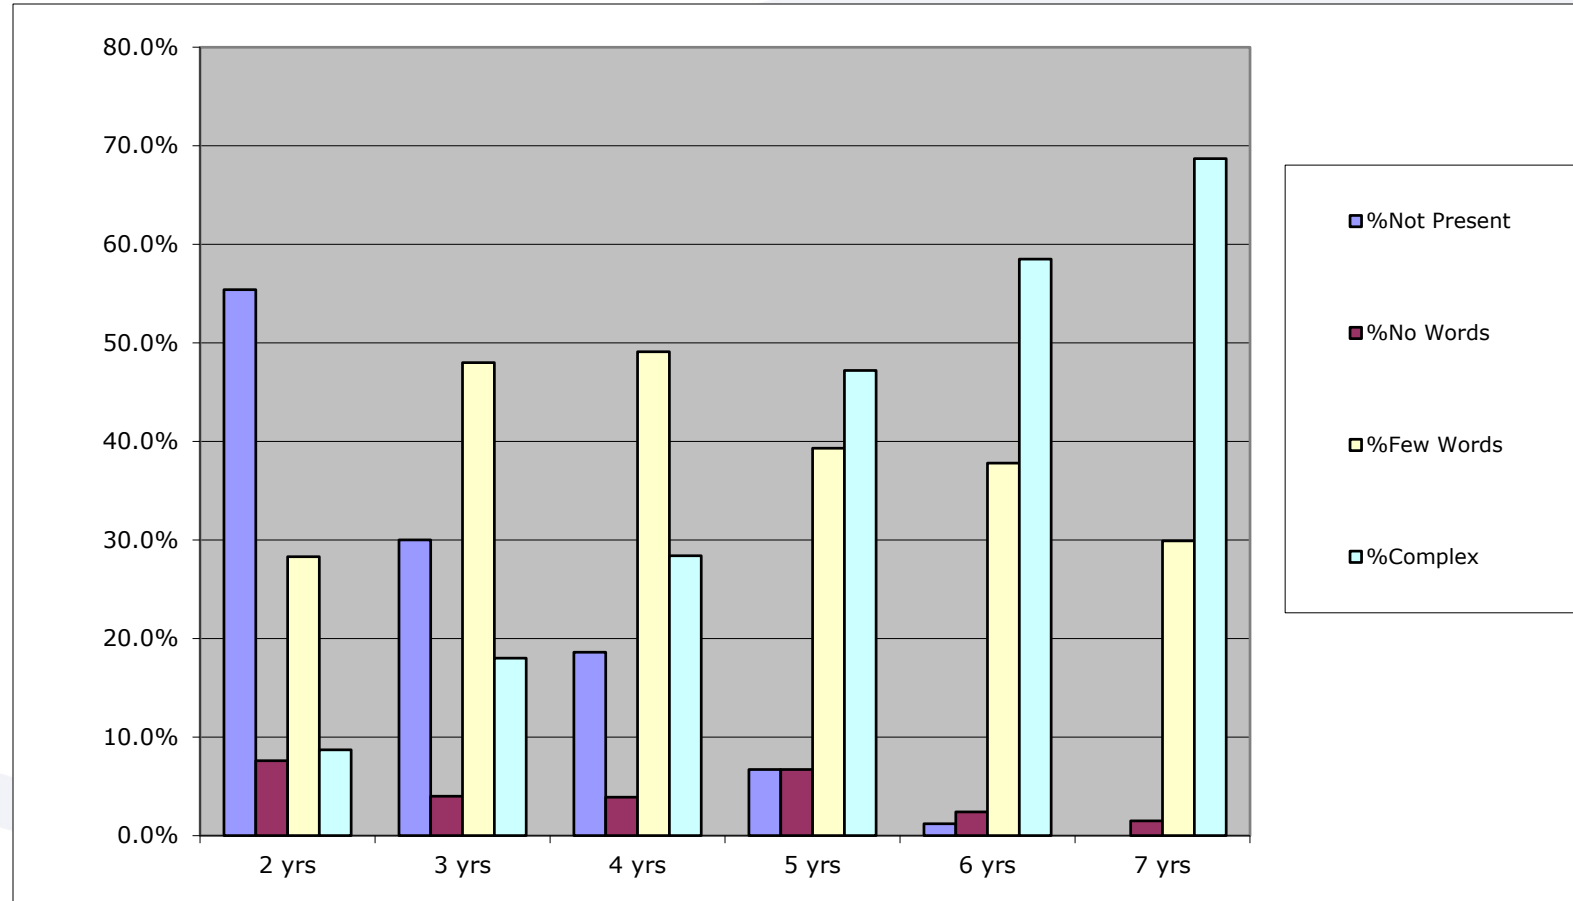

Makes apologies

Makes apologies/explanations- Hearing Children

Makes apologies/explanations: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

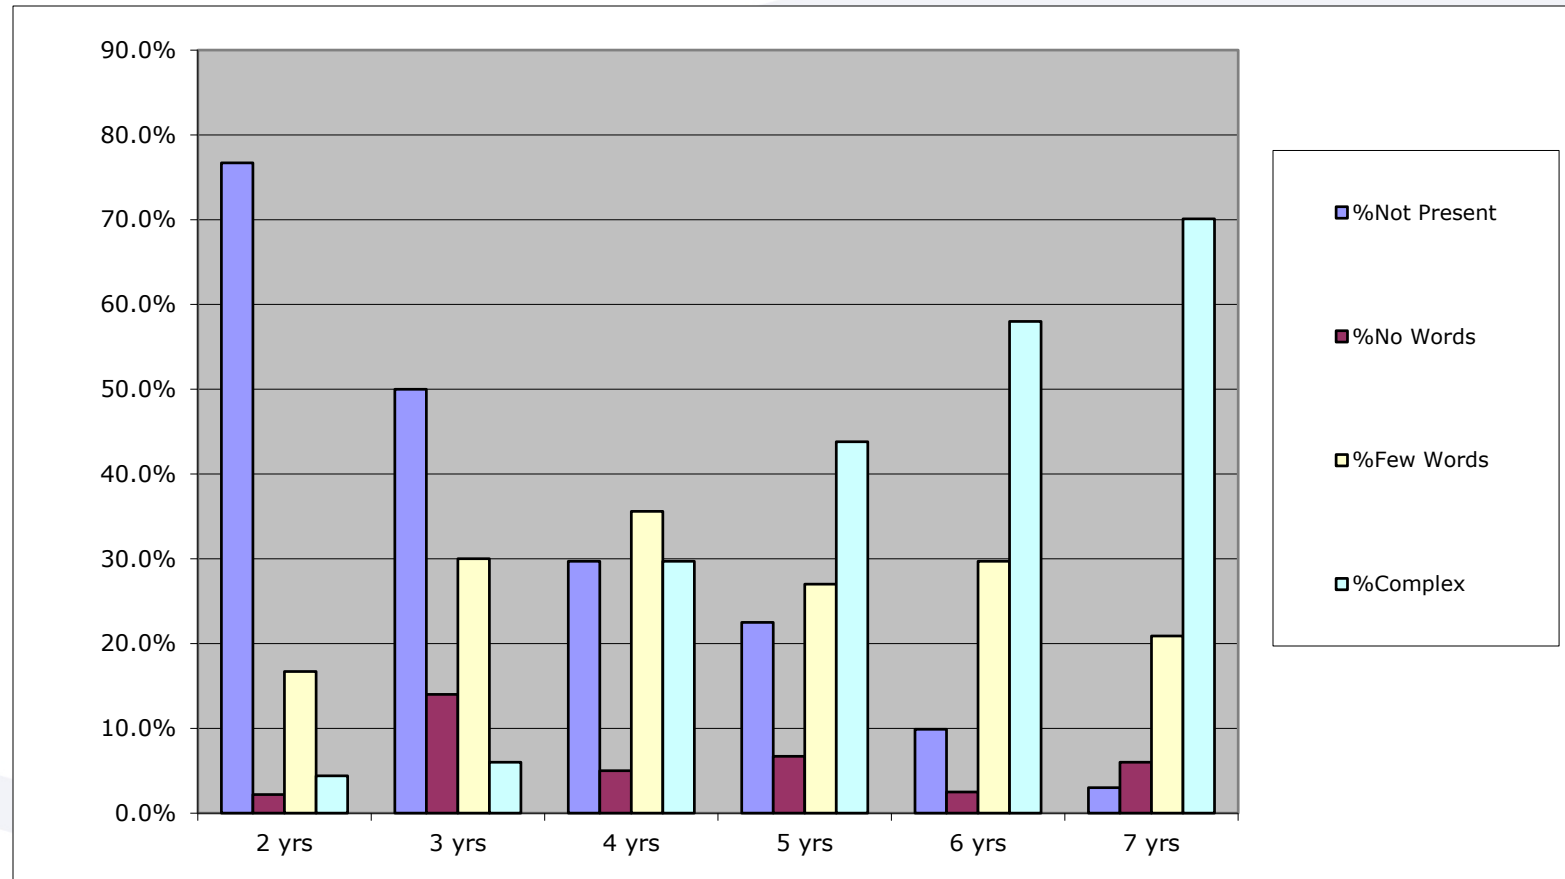

Requests clarification

Requests clarification – Hearing Children

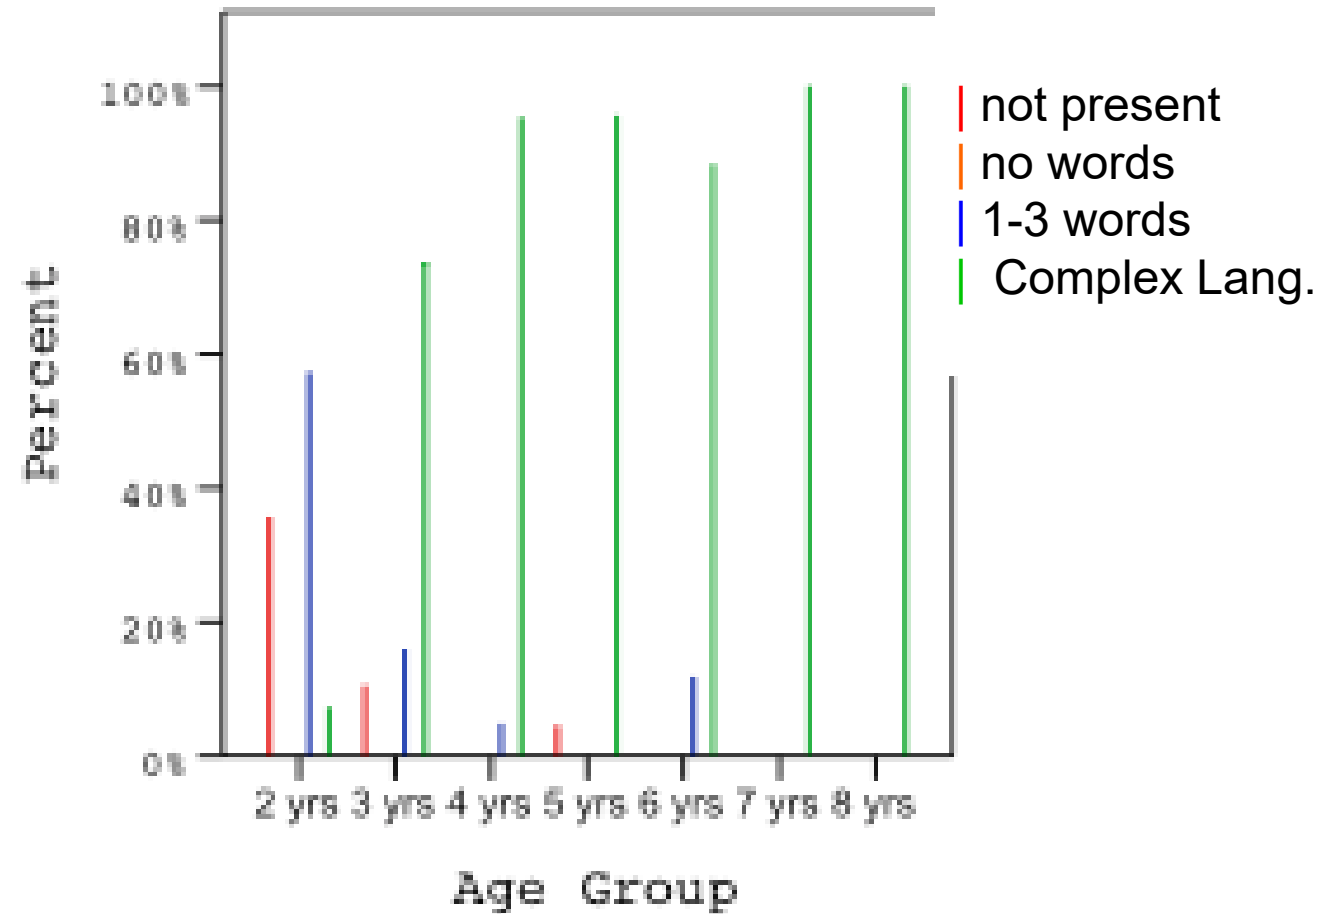

Requests clarification: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

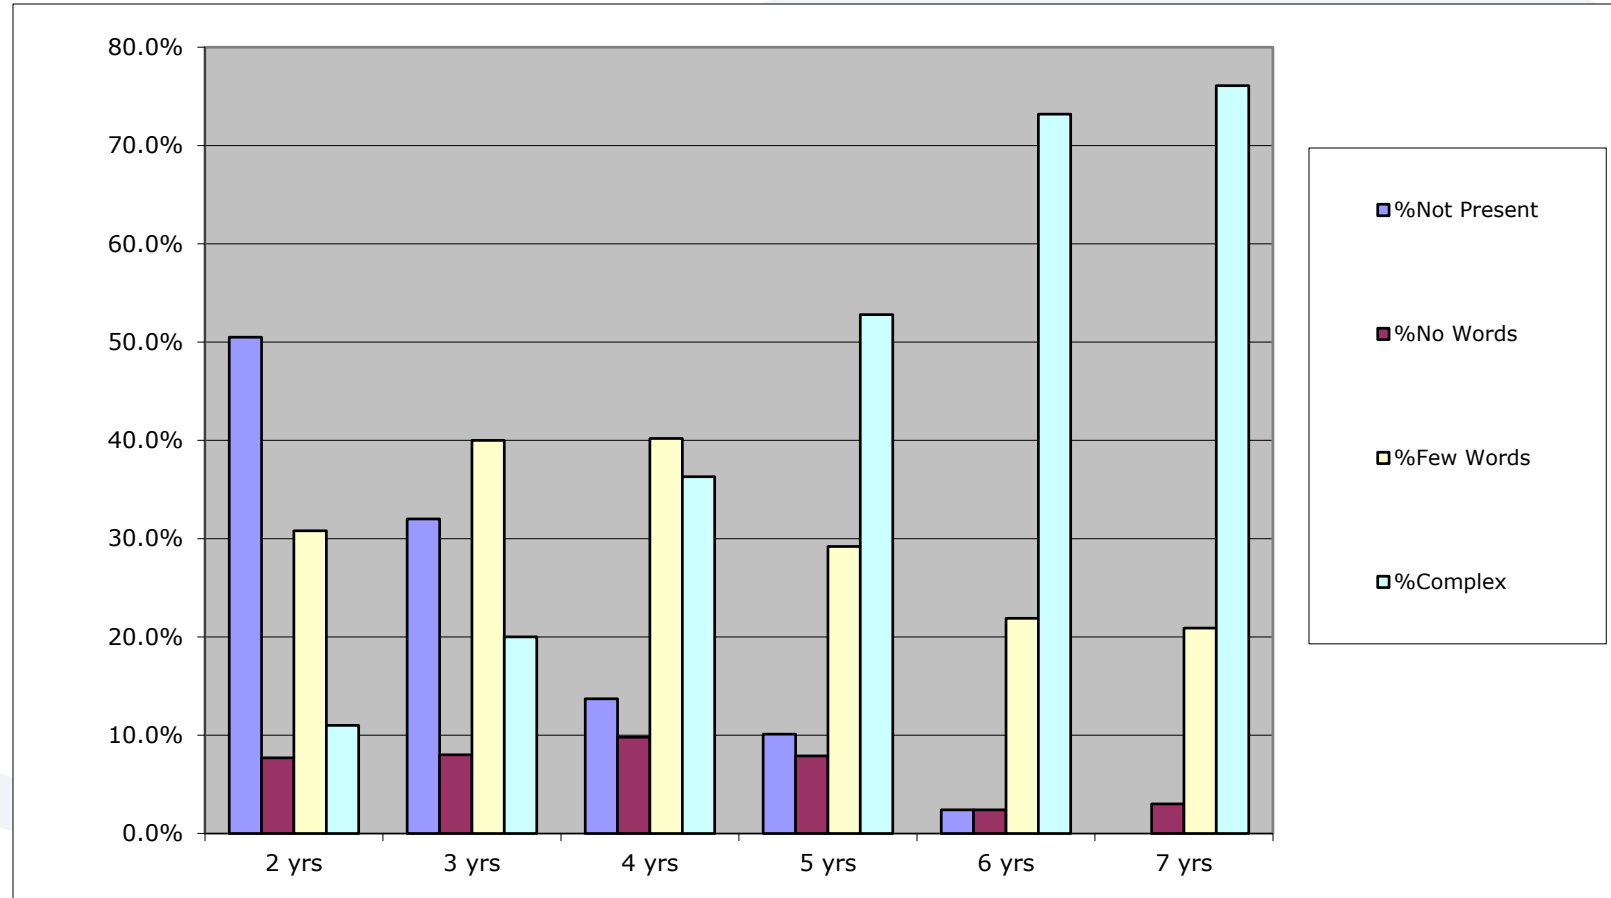

States a problem

States a problem – Hearing Children

States a problem: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

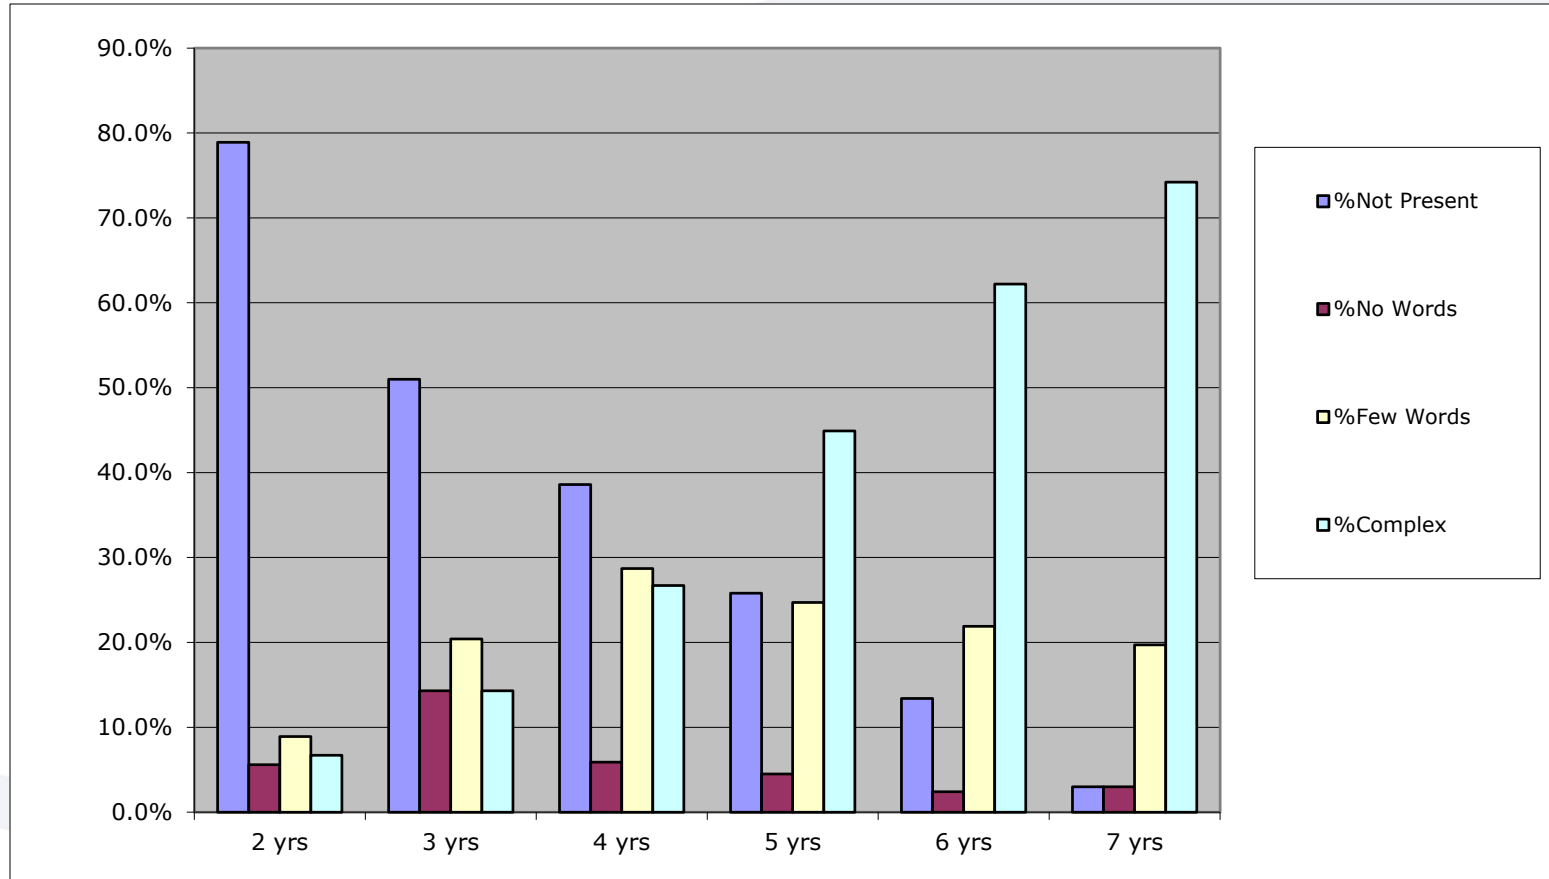

Criticizes Others

Criticizes others – Hearing Children

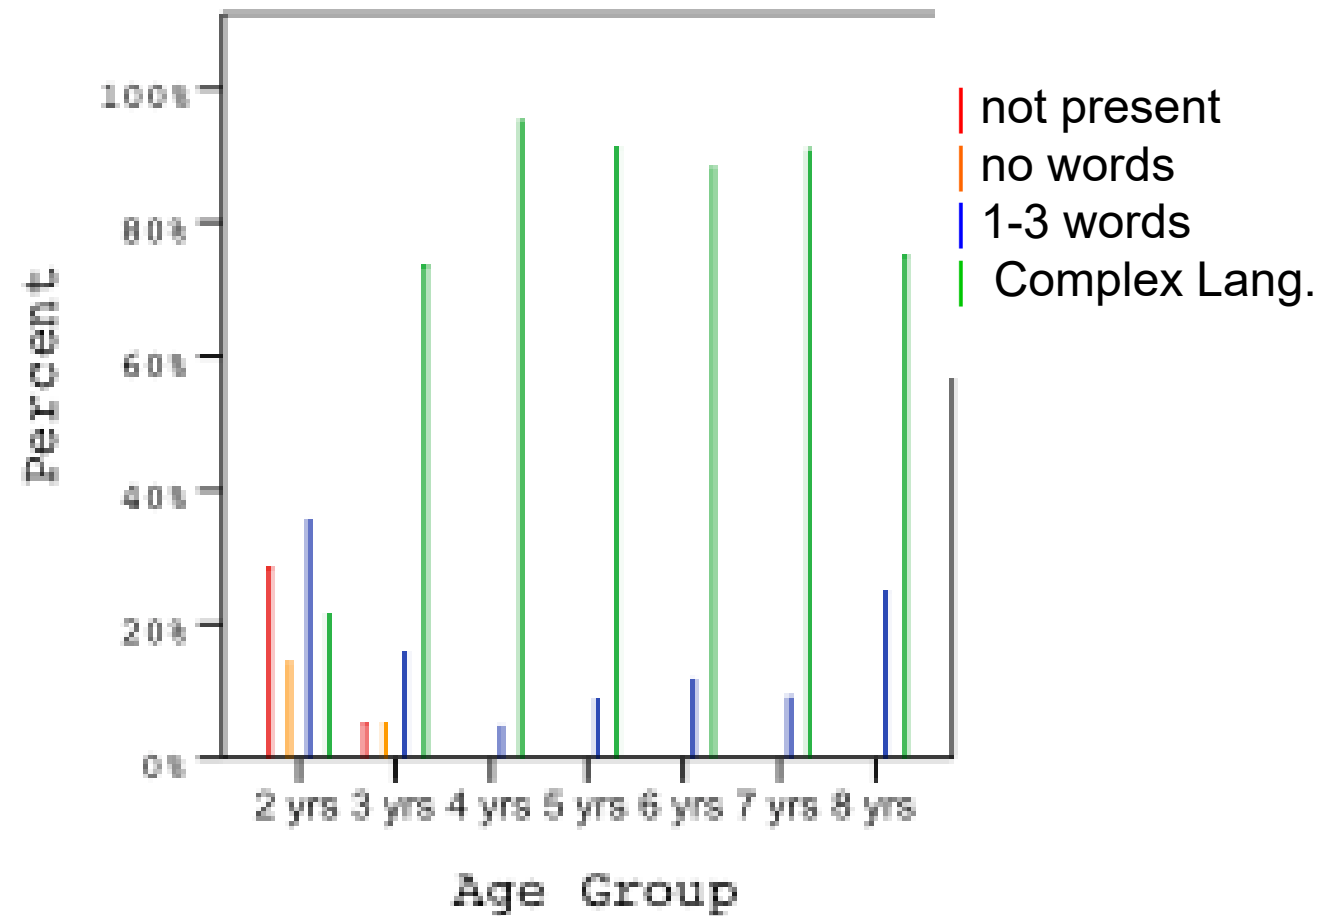

Criticizes others: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

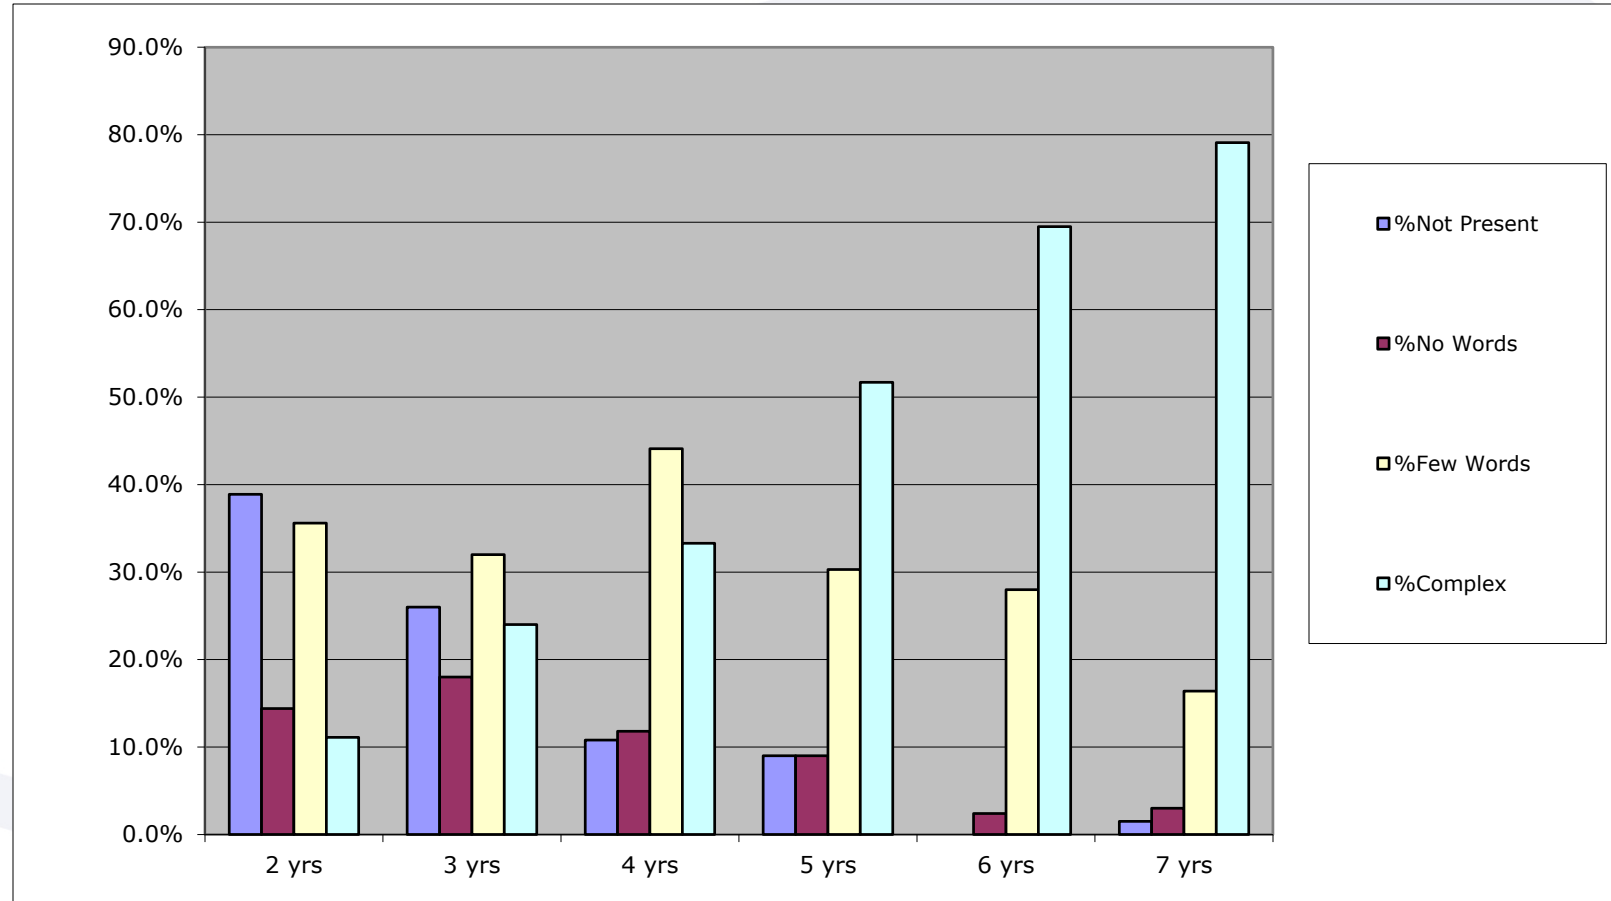

Disagrees with Others

Disagrees with others – Hearing Children

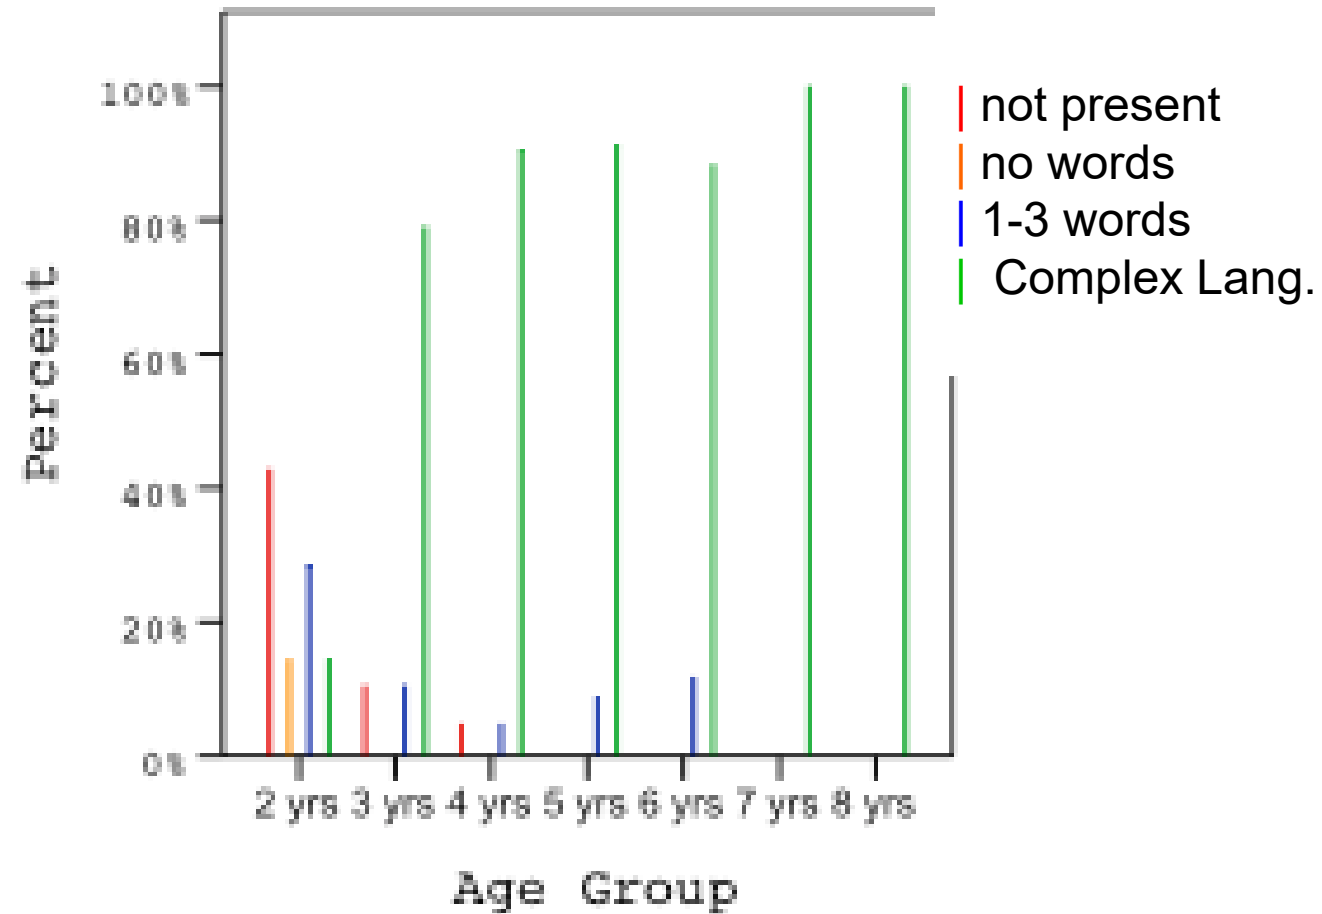

Disagrees with Others: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

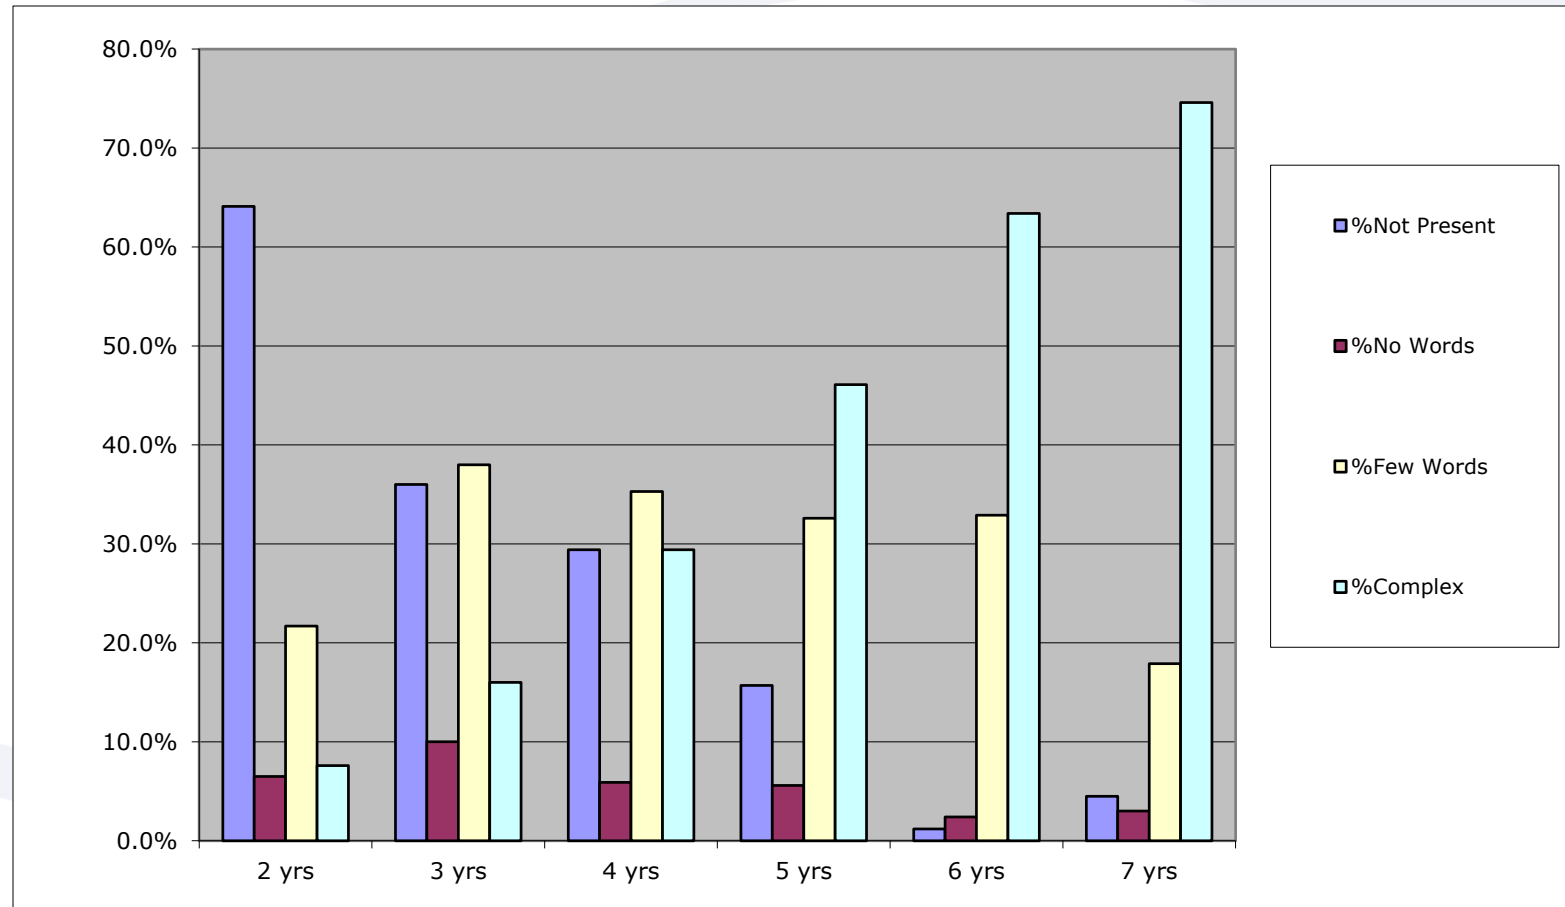

Compliments Others

Compliments others – Hearing Children

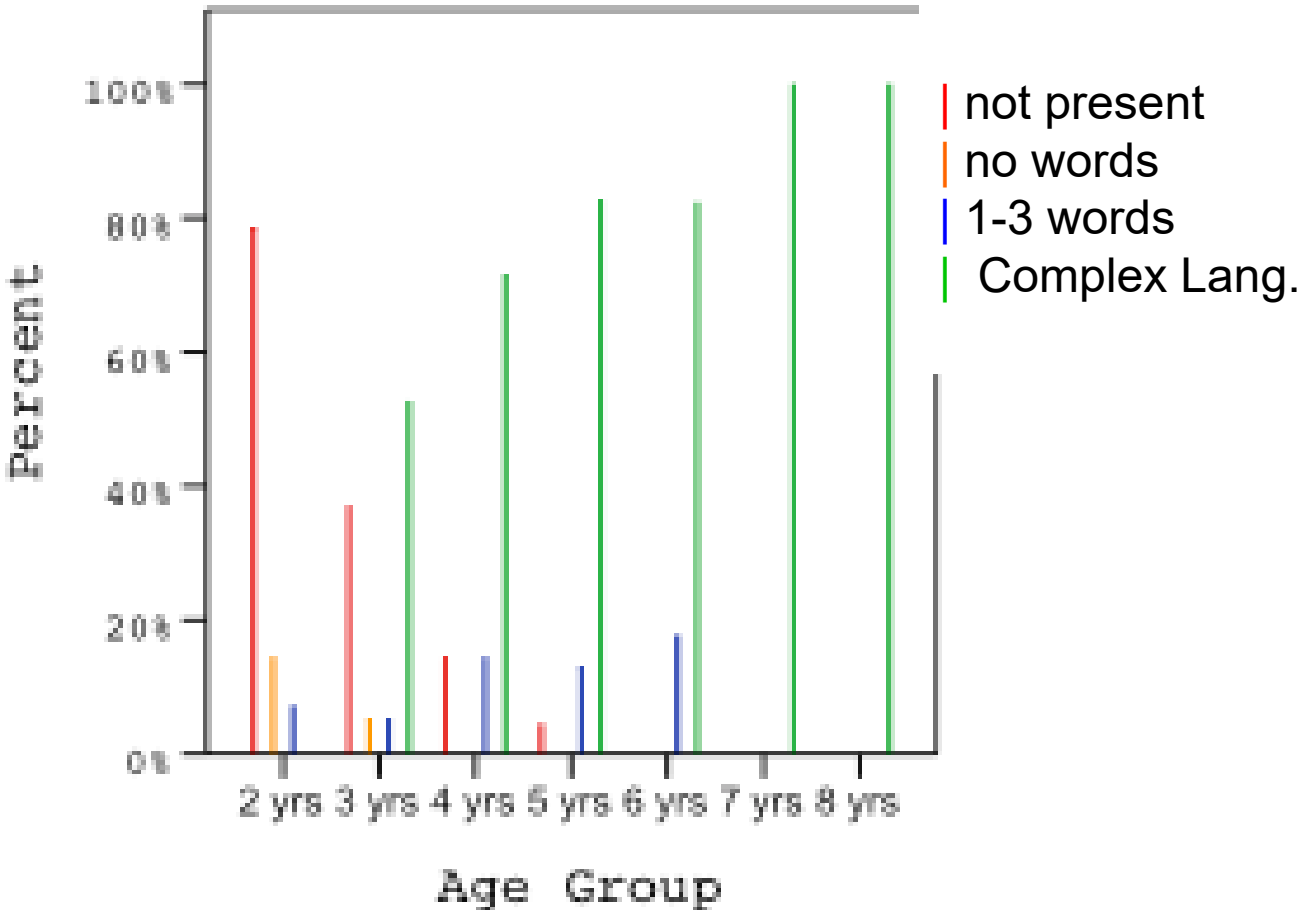

Compliments Others: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

Makes promises

Makes promises – Hearing Children

Makes Promises: Children who are deaf or hard of hearing

